What is an egg's least favourite day of the week?
Fry-day

Why should you never tell an Easter egg a joke?
Because it might crack up

What do you get when you pour hot water down a rabbit hole?
A hot cross bunny

How can you tell where the Easter bunny has been?
Eggs mark the spot

What do you call a sleeping Easter egg?
Egg-zosted

Why did the Easter bunny cross the road?
Because the chicken had his eggs

The UK's first chocolate Easter egg was produced in 1873.

The largest ever Easter egg hunt was in Florida in 2007. 9,753 children searched for 501,000 eggs.

Children in the UK receive, on average, 8.8 Easter eggs each year.

In 2007, an Easter egg covered in diamonds sold for almost £9 million. Every hour, a cockerel made of jewels pops up from the top of the Faberge egg, flaps its wings four times, nods its head three times and makes a crowing noise.

In a survey, 76% of people said that when they eat a chocolate Easter bunny they start with the ears.

The date of Easter changes each year according to the phases of the moon, but it is always between 22nd March and 25th April.

What kind of Easter egg would you most like to receive?

How do you eat your Cadbury's Crème Egg?

What are you looking forward to during the Easter holidays?

Why do you think Easter is so important to Christians?