Lendrick Muir

11-14 October 2024

Explore | Respond | Flourish

Explore

We're diving into the Old Testament and figuring out how we can find Jesus in all the ancient stories and writings. Join us as we seek to make sense of the Old Testament with a fresh perspective, and maybe even discover a side of Jesus we never knew.

Respond

As we explore the Bible and discover Jesus, his invitation to us is to respond. Our workshops this year will dig deeper into what we are discovering in the Old Testament and why knowing the whole Bible might be important for us. They will help us focus on ways to grow as Christians, and look at issues facing us today.

Flourish

The Go Conference is more than coming to an event. It's about going back equipped to flourish as disciples of Jesus at home, school and among your friends. We'll spend time together hearing some of your stories and thinking through what might be possible where you live.

Sarah Coghlan

is the Youth Ministry Co-ordinator for Scripture Union in Northern Ireland. She lives in sunny Bangor, although Scotland feels like a second home as she went to University in St Andrews. Sarah has been working in Youth Ministry for 15 years and is more passionate than ever about young people knowing Jesus and growing in their relationship with Him.

Helen Warnock

helps head up the work of Christ in Youth (CIY) across Europe, investing in faith formation with young people. She has been involved in leadership and mission for over twenty-five years, as a youth worker, leading SU Northern Ireland, and as Principal of Belfast Bible College. Helen's heart is to see others grow in their relationship with Jesus – especially young people and those investing in them.

What?

The Go Conference is SU Scotland's national youth conference for S4-S6 pupils who want to grow in their relationship with God and understand how the Bible shapes all areas of life... home, school and friendships.

Where & When?

Go Conference takes place at SU Scotland's Lendrick Muir Centre near Kinross from Friday 11th through to Monday 14th October 2024.

Most Scottish schools are off this weekend. If yours isn't, we're happy to provide a letter about the Go Conference asking if they will let you attend.

A good public bus service connects northern Scotland to Kinross Park and Ride where participants will be met and taken to Lendrick Muir. Alternatively, a coach will run from Glasgow and Edinburgh to Lendrick Muir (at an additional cost)
